

Q: Which character helped to blow up enemy trains belonging to the Nazis with explosives?
Aunt Hannah

Q: Where was the secret hideout actually located?
In a hidden island in the middle of a swamp

Q: Which life-threatening injury did Max Rosen receive?
Max received a gunshot wound in the ribs from a pistol.

Q: What happened to Aunt Hannah at the very end of the book?
Aunt Hannah got married to Lev.

Q: At the beginning, which bird did Zena and Max see that they thought was a sign of good luck?
A robin

Q: Where did Mr. Jablonski tell Max and Zena to hide from the Nazis on his farm?
In the hayloft of his barn

Q: Why did author Lauren Tarshis write this book?
To create a meaningful and action-packed story about family and survival during times of war

Q: Where were Papa, Max, and Zena moving to at the end of this book?
The United States

: Which historic war provided the time setting for this book?
World War II

Q: What is Max Rosen's connection to Zena in this book?
Max and Zena are brother and sister to each other.

Q: Which of Papa's favorite sayings did he exclaim when he was reunited with Max and Zena at the end?
"I knew I would find you!"

Q: Which group of people were the Nazis trying to capture and kill?
Jewish people

Q: At the beginning, where was Papa Rosen, Max's father?
Papa was taken away by the Nazi soldiers.

Q: Which item crashed down upon Max and left him buried in a ditch?
A large tree in the forest

Q: Which country provided the main location setting for this book?
Poland

: Who is the main character in the story?
Max

- Q: Why did Max get hit by the Nazi soldier?
because he went under the barbed wire fence
- Q: What bird did Max and Zena see on the barbed wire fence?
a Robin
- Q: What happen to Aunt Hannah?
She was fighting against the Nazis.
- Q: Who saved Zena and Max from the Nazi soldier?
a farmer
- Q: What were the partisans?
a group fighting againts the Nazis
- Q: What happened to Max in the forest?
He was shot.
- Q: Who came to the forest with Aunt Hannah at the end of the book?
Papa
- Q: Where did Max and his family move to?
America
- Q: When Max crawled under the fence of the ghetto,
a Nazi soldier took him away.
- Q: When Max saw a soldier about to shoot Martin and Zena, he threw a rock at the soldier.
- Q: When Aunt Hannah left Max's family,
Max thought she went to America.
- Q: In the middle of the night, Nazis took Max's father away.
- Q: Aunt Hannah's group _____ to fight the Nazis.
exploded a train of weapons
- Q: After the group took Max to the island camp,
a doctor removed Max's bullet.
- Q: When Martin shot the young soldier,
the soldier shot Max in the side.
- Q: When Max and Zena met three people hiding in Mr. Jablonski's barn, one of them was Aunt Hannah.

- Q: When the Nazis came to the town of Esties,
they destroyed Jewish businesses.
- Q: After Max pushed the Nazi soldier over,
the soldier accidentally shot himself.
- Q: When German planes bombed the forest,
a burning tree fell on Max.
- Q: When Aunt Hannah returned to the camp,
she brought Max's father with her.
- Q: After the war, Max and his family moved to New York.
- Q: Mr. Jablonski worked as a spy for the partisans.
- Q: When Zena's toe was hurting,
Aunt Hannah showed Zena her war scar.
- Q: When Max dug himself out of the ditch,
he heard machine-gun fire.
- Q: In this book, PARTISANS were people who fought against the Nazis with small attacks.
- Q: Max and Zena thought _____ was good luck.
the robin on the barbed wire
- Q: When the farmer with the rifle woke up Max and Zena, he let them hide in his barn.
- Q: Aunt Hannah told Max not to let the Nazis take away his hope.